

CIRCULAR No. 80

24.07.2025

To: All Faculty & Staff Members

Subject: Anti-Ragging Affidavit Compliance – Appreciation and Next Steps

Dear Faculty Members,

The UGC has intensified its monitoring of Anti-Ragging Affidavit compliance, and institutions failing to ensure student submissions are being issued Show Cause Notices.

We are pleased to share that our institute has not received any such notice, which is a testament to the collective efforts and dedication of all faculty members and coordinators of PIMRG. Your commitment in guiding and motivating students has played a vital role in this achievement — thank you for your continued support.

Looking ahead, let us strive once again for 100% affidavit submission and the timely uploading of the compliance report on the UGC portal. To this end, we request your full cooperation and proactive assistance to the Anti-Ragging Coordinator, Dr. Raveendra Babu, in successfully completing this critical task.

All mentors of all semesters programs of all the courses is required to submit Anti Ragging forms filled by the students and signed by the parents and submit to registrar by 30.08.2025. Mentors are also advised to ask the students for the following details to fill the anti ragging form.

- (a) Scholar Number of students.
- (b) Self and Parent email id.
- (c) www.amanmovement.org (Share this website to the students for filling up the form).
- (d) All mentors are also requested to depute your both CR with Yogendra Singh Rathore, Senior System Admin for smooth filling the forms before sending the full class.

Mentors are also requested to take schedule from Senior System Admin, Mr. Yogendra Singh Rathore for Anti Ragging forms online.

Also find attached herewith the show cause notice dated 09.06.2025 issued by UG, Delhi to all the institutions except our institution.

Dr. Rakhi Singh Chouhan
Principal Incharge - Management

